WHY THIS DULLNESS?

None but Professionals Dallying on the New York Exchange.

Volume of Business Showing Decrease Every Day-Indianapolis Cereals Are a Trifle Higher.

At New York, yesterday, money on call was easy at 11/202 per cent., the last loan being at 11/2, closing offered at 11/2.

Prime mercantile paper, 5@7 per cent. Sterling exchange was steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.83%@4.84 for demand and at $4.81@4.81% for sixty days; posted rates, $4.82 and $4.85; commercial bills, $4.79\\@4.79\4.

Silver certificates, 69%c bid. Bar silver closed at 69c per ounce; at London, 32d. The total sales of stocks were 301,900 shares. The volume of business on the New York Stock Exchange has been steadfly decreasing during the week, and yesterday transactions were the lightest since Saturday last. The market, too, seems to be again lapsing into the hands of traders, and the dealings are characterized by that irregularity which marks the movement of the purely professional speculative element. There were spurts of activity and upward movements made simply for the purpose of getting fresh starting points for new attacks on values. At the opening of the day all the indications were for a strong market. London buying orders were quite heavy, American securities were higher on the London Stock Exchange, and there were a number of good orders to buy L. & N. and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. A decline in sterling exchange was another favorable item, going to furnish excellent general conditions, but the trend of speculation was bearish and the tendency of prices was toward a lower

It was reported that the ways and means committee of the House had decided to reduce the duty on sugar, and this was used as a lever to move the shares of the American Sugar Refining Company down 31/4 per cent., during which process a large number of shares changed hands. An effectual drive was made in Distilling on the ground that the stock of distilled spirits had been reduced to a point that would prevent the company from realizing any substantial benefit from an increase of tax. The market closed firm, but at prices 1/4@ 21% per cent, below the closing figures of Thursday. Baltimore & Ohio lost 2, Chicago Gas 14, Louisville & New Albany preferred, Pittsburg & Western preferred and Lead preferred %

LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE. Friday Was an Off Day in Trade on the Wholesale Streets.

The wholesale men report trade rather quiet yesterday, but the four preceding days of the week there was a decided improvement over last month. It is noticein character. However, November business will doubtless show more favorable results than did October. In prices there were few changes. Eggs are in active request at the advance of Thursday. Poultry and butter are weak under increased receipts. Staple groceries rule steady and firm, unless fancy, which move slowly. The hide market is less active at unchanged prices. Iron and hardware dealers report some improve-ment in trade, but it still falls short of last year's volume

The local grain market was quite active yesterday. Wheat, corn and oats on several grades showed an advance of 16001c. and the bidding was quite spirited. Track bids ruled as follows: Wheat-No. 2 red, 58c; No. 3 red, 55c; rejected, 400050c.

WHEAT HELD STRONG

Decrease in Farmers' Deliveries Everything to Do with It.

Corn and Oats Made Slight Gains and Provisions Ranged Higher on a Scarcity of Hog Receipts.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.-Predictions of lighter farmers' deliveries in the Northwest did much to sustain wheat to-day. The market was feverish and irregular within a range of %c and closed without change since yesterday for December, but about 1/3c higher for May. Corn made a gain of 1/2c on buying by shippers. Oats only secured about 1-16c improvement, but ruled firm all day. Provisions experienced an increase in business at a moderate advance

Wheat operators to a large extent seemed to feel that with the growing confidence in the financial future and with prices low, the long side of the market offered the best prospects for a good profit. The market showed some weak spots, but made quick rallies. The opening was 1/401/4c lower than yesterday's close and prices further declined 1/4c, then rallied and with some fluctuations were advanced %@%c for December and 1c for May, eased off and the closing was steady at 4@%c from the top. Advices were more or less contradictory from the Northwest late in the day regarding deliveries, but general sentiment appeared inclined to give the first reports most credence. Corn opened easy, owing to an excess of forty-one cars in to-day's receipts over yesterday's estimates, and also because of the easier feeling in wheat at the opening. Subsequently it responded to the changes in the wheat market, May dropping 4c below the opening with the weak spots in wheat, but rallied on light estimated future receipts and closed firm at top prices. At the opening the evidences were for a lower market on oats, but good buying orders and the firmness in corn helped the

The provision market, on receipts of but 16,000 hogs, opened strong. The Cudahy Packing Company was said to have covered some shorts near the opening, and until liberal sellers appeared the price showed no tendency to decline. Compared with last night, pork shows a gain of 5c; lard, .10c;

Vessel room was plenty and the demand small at 1%c for wheat and %c for corn to Buffalo, and 1%c for corn and 1%c for oats to Port Huron. Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 135 cars; corn, 400; oats, 200; hogs, 11,000 head. The leading futures ranged as follows:

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.-Business is by no means justifying the expectations of the trade, which has been looking for a revival of activity following the repeal of the Saerman law and the uncertainties regarding what Congress may do before its final adjournment. The trade, it is now apparent, is much more afraid of tariff tinkering than it ever was of the silver question. The recent bullish overtures seen in the cotton market and the talk of higher prices for raw material is making the market for cotton goods firmer as a matter of sympathy, but any prospect for higher prices does not influence buyers to anticipate their wants, so widespread is the fear of unfriendly legislation. Printing cloths show firmness at 215-16 for sixty-four squares. Prints and printed fabrics are firm and a shade higher without activity. G inghams and woven wash fabrics suitable for the spring trade are attracting more attention; dark colors are avoided. Dress goods of light texture and complexion are commanding n-tter attention, but stocking up for the spring trade demand is not what it ought to be at this time of the year. Foreign dry goods rule quiet except as to holiday novelties and strictly speaking spring goods. The jobbing trade is quiet and featureless.

Obstructions in Military Park.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: In the article on street-car line construction work in your Friday's issue the statement is made that the Blake-street line will not be made electric this season. The residents of the West Side hope that this is an error of reporting or printing rather than of management, being buoyed in that hope by the signs scattered along the route. In the all-mule car time that line was one of the best paying ones, though now somewhat run down by the irregular service consequent upon long and unnecessary trips over eastern tracks also traversed by several other lines. Within the present week the company has hauled ties and distributed them all along New York street, west of West, and large piles of them to the numby being placed on the grass.

ber of about thirty obstruct and disgrace four squares of the fringe of Military Park If it be, as you say, that the street-car company has declared that the Blake-street line is not to be altered this season the people will demand of the proper authorities that this use of Military Park as a lumber storage yard for the winter be forbidden, for aesthetic reasons, because it is an infringement upon the rights of the public, and on the ground of danger to the children, many of whom use that pretty oasis as a playground. Similar piles of ties lay along there and in the gutters nearly all summer, but were removed just before the G. A. R. encampment to "slick up" and make room or the "old veto ans," who did not come there, even for a day, and the regular residents now think they are entitled to equal consideration in the matter with the prospective strangers within our gates, especially if they are likely to be obliged to endure it for a long hard winter. Indianapolis, Nov. 3. Sugar Beet Growing in Indiana.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: The establishing of beet sugar manufacturing may prove of the greatest importance to a large number of Indiana farmers. Indiana embraces some of the most fertile soil in America, second to none of which is the valley of the Big Blue. I have endeavored to show for several years that beet culture is a success on the uplands of Blue-river valley, and this year, for the first time, we planted three long rows of sugar beets across our black bottom land, and are now convinced of the fact that beet culture can be made a success in the Blue-river valley if anywhere in America. We planted imported seed-whether of the most desirable quality I am unable to say, of course-but the beets are very sweet when cooked, and, judging from samples sent me, they average six to nine pounds apiece. We shall leave the beets stand as long as the weather does not become too severe, so that anybody wishing to see their growth may call at Muth's farm, one mile west of Morristown, on the C. H. & D. railroad. CHARLES F. MUTH.

Was Another Youth. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: In this morning's issue of your paper I see that you have Otto Stechhan accused of "Hallowe'en vandalism." I beg to say that the party implicated is Frank Stech-han. I would be pleased if you make this mistake known, as I had nothing to do with the affair. H. OTTO STECHHAN. Indianapolis, Nov. 3.

Palmistry Points. Boston Home Journal.

Square or spatulated fingers, in the science of paimistry, denote the philosophical and practical temperament, and very pointed digits are a sure sign of the dreamy, psychical nature. Much is learned by the general quality and configuration of the hand and palm, as well as by the lines which cross the latter. The life line running around the base of the thumb denotes long or short life, good or ill health or otherwise. The "heart line," running across the palm near-est the base of the flagers, signifies the quality of the possessor's emotional nature, also the kind of love she will give and re-

This will be enduring or temporary according to whether the line be long and clear, forked or crossed and chained. Below this is the head line, which indicates the mental and moral qualities and achievements and deficiencies. The line of fate runs perpendicularly across the middle of the palm, and is a very important factor in the happiness or unhappiness of its owner. It should be clear and narrow, unchained and uncrossed by the fine wrinkles which score so many palms, and it should never come to an end on the line of the heart, since this signifies disappointment in love. A cross on the Mouat of Mercury, which is just at the base of the fore or index finger, is an unfailing sign of a happy

DUN & CO.'S OPINION

Fancy the Sherman Silver Clause Was the Root of All Evil.

No Evidence that Anyone Besides the Bankers Are Being Benefited-Bradstreet's Fair Estimate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The repeal of the silver-purchase act does good already. The business world in every part of the country reckons it helpful, and the tone of the trade is more confident. It is hardly time as yet for the effects to be felt to any great extent in manufactures, but bankers are more liberal in accommodations, and merchants more hopeful in purchase. It is well to remember that the act will do less good than if it had been passed early in the spring or without delay after Congress assembled. It cannot now prevent several thousand failures which have already occurred, nor relieve creditors from resulting embarrassments. It cannot now save from loss a multitude of manufacturing establishments which have closed because the future seemed uncertain. It will go far to restore business confidence, which was much needed, but many expect from the measure larger results than can at this late day be realized. The action of Congress had less visible influence on speculative markets for products, in part, because foreign markets obstinately refused to accept the higher valuations which speculators here tried to establish. Though people across the water award unstinted praises to those who secured the passage of the repeal bill, there is not much disposition to pay higher prices on that account the weakness of markets is more signifi-Industries could not be expected to make any material decline in consequence of no financial conditions, but the demand for textile products has to some extent improved. The metal-working industries manifest little gain as yet. The minor metals tion lifted lead a trifle. The volume of domestic trade gains but little, exchanges outside of New York being 22.96 per cent. lower than last year for the week. The exports of products for the past month have been about $1,000,000 larger than last year, while imports have been about $19,409,000 smaller, which indicates an excess of exports of $30,000,000 or more for the month. The railroads have been doing a little better, but returns do not come up to those of last year. Failures for the week number 358 in the United States against 238 last year, and 28 in Canada against 31 last year, Only five concerns failed with liabilities exceeding $100,000 each. The aggregate of the liabilities for the week ending Oct. 26 was larger than of late, amounting to $5,400,000.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW. Evidence that Very Little Good Can

Come of Silver Repeal. NEW YORK, Nov. 3.-Bradstreet's will say to-morrow: "Telegraphic advices from many of the more important business centers are that some effects of the passage of the silver purchase repeal law is reflected in an improved tone in financial circles and the growth of confidence of merchants in the outlook. But it should not be disguised that the repeal is too late to have an effect on fall trade. The earliest reported effect of repeal is seen in an improvement in the demand for commercial paper at New York and some other centers. The only improvement in demand for general merchandise this week is slight at Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin cities. In the cotton growing districts of the South collections are improved. The like is true in Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska graingrowing sections, but the country people are economizing rigidly, and interior storekeepers therefore refuse to buy except for immediate needs, although stocks are light, The long prevailing stagnation in iron and steel and the woolen industry show no sign of an early change. The cotton manufacturing industry is relatively better situated. There is evidence, too, of more activity in shoes, brown cottons, tobacco and anthracite coal. The Northwestern lumber cut will be short this winter, but lumber now is generally quiet. Clothing had a disappointing fall demand, and tanners are waitng for shoe manufacturers to buy stocks of leather.

"Contrasted with October last year the decrease is 27 per cent. Compared to the two preceding Octobers the falling off is still heavier. For ten months clearings aggregate $45,744,364,000, or 9 per cent. less than in ten months of 1892. Wheat is off again on heavy supplies, the total available in the United States, Canada, affoat and in Europe being 172,825,000 bushels, the heaviest November total on record. The October world's wheat stocks increased last month two-thirds as much as in 1892 and in 1891, years of heavy production Exports of wheat, flour included, equal 2,860,000 bushels from both coasts of the United States and Canada this week. A year ago the total was 3,714,000 and two years ago 3,820,000 bushels. Last week it was 3,327,000 bushels.
